

Marine robotic infrastructures network: lessons learned and future developments

Side event – All Atlantic meeting, June 2nd, 2021 (16:00-17:30 UTC)

<https://www.allatlantic2021.eu/a/marine-robotic-infrastructures-network-lessons-learned-and-future-developments/>

Agenda

Moderator: Fausto Ferreira, UNIZ-FER

16:00 – 16:05 Welcome and goals, António Pascoal, EU Marine robots, IST-ID, Portugal

Marine Research infrastructures

16:05 – 16:09 EUMR overview, João Sousa, EU Marine robots, LSTS-Porto University, Portugal

16:09 – 16:13 Eurofleets+ overview, Niamh Flavin, Marine Institute, Ireland

16:13 – 16:17 GROOM2 overview, Laurent Mortier, ENSTA, France

Challenges

16:17 – 16:21 Eurosea, Johannes Karstensen, Geomar, Germany

16:21 – 16:25 Atlantos, Brad DeYoung, Memorial University, Canada

16:25 – 16:29 Eurogoos, George Petihakis, Hellenic Centre for Marine Research, Greece

16:29 – 16:33 – European Marine Board, Paula Kellett, Belgium

International perspective

16:33 – 16:37 – A perspective from the United States, Craig Mclean, NOAA, United States of America

16:37 – 16:41 – A perspective from Brazil, Fábio Nascimento, Federal University of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

16:41 – 16:45 – A perspective from South Africa, Sandy Thomalla, CSIR, South Africa

16:45 – 16:49 – A perspective from a Tech Cluster, Michael Jones, TMA BlueTech, United States of America

Discussion

16:49 – 16:53 – EUMR outlook and setting the agenda for the discussion, Jan Opderbecke, EU Marine robots, Ifremer, France

16:53 – 17:23 - Discussion (Moderators: Aodhán Fitzgerald, Marine Institute, Ireland, João Sousa, LSTS-FEUP, Portugal and Jan Opderbecke, Ifremer)

Craig Mclean, NOAA, United States of America

Ralf Bachmayer, EU Marine robots, MARUM - University of Bremen, Germany

George Petihakis, Hellenic Centre for Marine Research, Greece

Brad DeYoung, Memorial University, Canada

17:23 – 17:30 – Research infrastructure in Horizon Europe, Agnès Robin, European Commission

17:30 – Closing remarks, Carlos Barrera, EU Marine robots, PLOCAN, Spain